

You Ain't Takin' This Hard Enough

Ray Scott

I'm the poster boy for misery since we said goodbye
And from what I'm hearin baby hell you ain't even cried
Now I can't be for certain girl but I got a hunch
You ain't takin this hard enough

Well I'm loungin in my boxers, eatin supper in bed
While you're out there amongst 'em paintin this town red
Makin me look like a sucker, like some kind of chump
You ain't takin this hard enough

Girl you know you're havin way too dang much fun
You make me feel like I'm the only lonely one
While I'm dyin over here, you're out there livin it up
Ah baby, you ain't takin this hard enough

Now I know when you're hurtin' who you go runnin' to
So I called up your mama just to check up on you
Your mama said she didn't even know we'd broke up
Huh, you ain't takin this hard enough

Girl you know you're havin way too dang much fun
You make me feel like I'm the only lonely one
While I'm dyin over here, you're out there livin it up
Ah baby, you ain't takin this hard enough

Yeah baby, you ain't takin this hard enough
