

Isn't That Something

Ray Toro

You said yourself
You wouldn't cry tonight
The evidence will show
After all this
It's alright

Hard to hear the words you say
Never look too long
For the answers that may
Never come your way

Mama told me 'I should stand alone'
Papa said 'You're better on your own'
Isn't that something, woah
Isn't that something, woah oh woah oh
Isn't that something
Isn't that something, woah oh, oh oh

The feelings pass
Darkness turns to light
Confidence will grow
After all this
You were right

Laughter. Love will heal my soul.
Sorry it took so long.
For a broken man to mend himself whole.

Mama told me 'I should stand alone'
Papa said 'You're better on your own'
Isn't that something, woah
Isn't that something, woah oh woah oh
Isn't that something
Isn't that something, woah oh, oh oh

Mama told me 'I should stand alone'
Papa said 'You're better on your own'
Isn't that something, woah
Isn't that something, woah oh woah oh
Isn't that something
