I was really hoping that you would pick up because I miss you a lot, and um
I'm sorry that I'm crying right now, but I'm drunk, and um
I miss you

I guess by forever, you meant until you went and found someone better (Yeah)
When it rains, it pours and I'm sick of this shit like I'm under the weather
My mom's saying get it together
I stay down, don't know what upset her
I'm feeling like this was a setup
I learned my lesson, the perfect professor
Made me question was my all enough? (All enough)
How I fuck around and fall in love? (Fall in love)
You was worrying about your ex
Like you 'bout to go and make a powderpuff (Damn)
We used to talk for like an hour plus (Yeah)
You was my dope like a powdered drug
Then your ex killed our relationship ('Ship)
And you just let him pull the power plug (Fuck)
You started changing and I seen the difference
You say you love me, but you mean it different (Yeah)
I tried to ride, but you blew the engine
Now it's clear as day that you seek attention
It's either that or you just wasn't thinking
Shit, was you thinking?
I always kept my shit a hundred with you
And well, now I hate you for one hundred reasons (Woo)
Like a grass land, now we ruined
You make your mistakes, I know that you're human
Everything was perfect 'til it got polluted
Can y'all bear with me? UCLA Bruin
And I got the crib just so you can move in
Family and my friends telling me I'm stupid
Used to point my finger, now my point is proven
Love me, but the loyalty was not included
So yeah, bitch, I went through your phone (Went through your phone)
Yeah, I went through your phone (I went through your phone)
And no, you ain't give me the code
But wasting my time with that shit you was on (Shit you was on)
'Cause you said you feel so alone
But I'm laying next to you when you at home
He said come over, he miss when you moan
And you never told me them feelings was gone (Damn)
So I wake you up 'cause I'm feeling disowned
And you yell at me as if I'm in the wrong (I'm in the wrong?)
You had that nigga here when I was gone?
Flexin' emoji, I gotta be strong
The pain in my bones (Damn)
'Cause I could never understand why
Put that relationship we had on standby (Standby)
A thousand bitches here at my side
But you the only woman I would stand by (Stand by)
Caught you red handed, so you can't lie (Can't lie)
I found myself being lost in you (Lost in you)
You ain't never went to school to be a surgeon, but somehow you split my heart in two (Heart in two)
So you don't care 'bout how you made me feel
Emotionally irresponsible

Couldn't tell me nothin' when it came to you
I thought cheating on me wasn't possible, goddamn

How you gon' do me like this? (How you gon' do me like this?)
You know I wasn't equipped (You know I wasn't equipped)
You should've just called it quits (You should've just called it quits)
If you wasn't gon' commit (If you wasn't gon' commit)
I put your calls on restrict (I put your calls on restrict)
Shit, to me, you don't exist (Shit, to me, you don't exist)
Thinkin' your heart some split (Thinkin' your heart some split)
'Cause you wasn't gon' commit
