

Bad Faith

RAYE

I can feel you moving in the dark
To stop your dreaming, now you're leaving
But never permanently
I know you're lying to me, told me to get up and leave
But by tomorrow, make a promise you'll be dying for me
We repeated this, 'bout twice now
You hold your heart out, gets torn down
That's the way it is, addictive
Hard addiction to the cold hard life realm

Sweetly wrapping yourself around me
Like I don't know my boundaries
Too close for me to run free

I am what you need and something to believe in
Please don't be scared of this, please don't be scared of this
Nothing I can do, no
As I watch this fall down
Please don't be scared of this, please don't be scared of this
Bad faith, bad faith, bad faith

Oh, I can see you hurting in the light
Complain some reasons, but you don't mean them
Now won't you hold me tight, started being, it started us being
Something that was right
I played fool
I can see you looking through my eyes
Wondering what must've been the current in my mind
Promising me everything will be alright

I am what you need, and something to believe in
Please don't be scared of this, please don't be scared of this
Nothing I can do, no
As I watch this fall down
Please don't be scared of this, please don't be scared of this
Bad faith

So sweetly wrapping yourself around me
Like I don't know my boundaries
Too close for me to run free
You hold me like you're about to lose me
Refuse to find my truth please
You sure you're where you wanna be?

I am what you need, and something to believe in
Please don't be scared of this, please don't be scared of this
Nothing I can do now
As I watch this fall down
Please don't be scared of this, please don't be scared of this
Bad faith, bad faith, bad faith
Please don't be scared of this, no
Please don't be scared of this, no
Bad faith, bad faith
Bad faith, bad faith
