RAYE

If you want it, you can have it
If you've got it, just gimme no mind
And if you're comin' on hot tonight
We're gonna ride tonight
If I have to, Raye, I got you
You know I want to
Just gimme no mind
And if you're comin' on hot tonight
We're gonna ride tonight
Oh, wait
Wow, wow, wow
You wanna come in my town, town, town
You wanna play with me now, now, now
You don't know if you're down, down, down
Wow, wow, wow
You wanna come in my town, town, town
You wanna play with me now, now, now
We don't want you around-round-round

Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
Na, na, na, na
Come on, na, na, na
Yeah, only now, now, now
I'm now finally coming round, round, round to the truth
Baby, I found out
Why did you do it?
Always had my doubts
Really hooking up with 5, 6 gal
What I do, to deserve that, wow
Why did you do it?

And I've never met no guy
Who's so good at telling lies
Oh, you piss off all your friends
Then you really wonder why
I was the last one on your side
I was the last one on your side
And now you lose me, you lose me

Baby, tell me
Where is your crew?
Everybody should know by now
I'm going missing and you go down
I'm here winnin' life without you
So when you see me at the party, you can watch me whine it

Way-a, way-o, all night
Way-a, way-o, all night
Way-a, way-o, all night
See me at the party, you can watch me whine it
Way-a, way-o, all night
Way-a, way-o, all night
Way-a, way-o, all night
See me at the party, you can watch me whine it

Dollars, euros, pound-pound-pounds
Spent all my money on a clown, clown, clown

Daddy knew you would let me down
My daddy knew it
Oh, my, my, my
I was your ride and your boo and you never got to
You gon' go down, bye bye

And I've never met no guy
Who's so good at telling lies
Oh, you piss off all your friends
Then you really wonder why
I was the last one on your side
I was the last one on your side
And now you lose me, you lose me

Baby, tell me
Where is your crew?
Everybody should know by now
I'm going missing and you go down
I'm here winnin' life without you
So when you see me at the party, you can watch me whine it

Way-a, way-o, all night
Way-a, way-o, all night
Way-a, way-o, all night
See me at the party, you can watch me whine it
Way-a, way-o, all night
Way-a, way-o, all night
Way-a, way-o, all night
See me at the party, you can watch me whine it

How are you feeling?
Not gonna lie
Talk to me, darling
I'm not alright
Now, now, now
He ain't gotta make you feel low
You ain't staying home tonight
What if, in the club, I cry?
Baby girl, I'll dry your eyes
Then get the drinks all night
'Cause he ain't gonna win this time
But I have got nothing to wear
Put on your shoes now, yeah
Let's put the vibes and tunes on, yeah
Down, hit the booze now, yeah
Not gonna think 'bout the fool now, yeah
Forget the rules now, yeah
Bust in the club then you're bustin' the moves now, yeah
And he's gonna watch you wind it with another man behind it
So when you see me at the party you can watch me whine it

Way-a, way-o, all night
Way-a, way-o, all night
Way-a, way-o, all night
See me at the party, you can watch me whine it
Way-a, way-o, all night
Way-a, way-o, all night
Way-a, way-o, all night
