

Mary Jane.

RAYE

Mary Jane, sweet, sweet Mary Jane
When you touch my mouth
I levitate
You take these bitter thoughts in my brain
And let them fall like summer rain
Sweet Mary Jane

Codeine
Silent marvelous codeine
How I miss your chemical hug
Since I been clean, ooh
You hold me better than any man did
And no one's done it like you since codeine, mm

Sweet, sweet, sweet
Sweet, sweet Mary Jane
And codeine can kill any pain

Mm, red wine
You always gave me the best advice
Mm, you gave me courage
To call the man who makes me cry
And I bought three bottles
'Cause I tend to drink you dry, mm
Oh, how we've danced tonight
Red, red wine

Sweet, sweet, sweet
Sweet, sweet Mary Jane, yeah
And codeine can kill any pain

Mandy, dear
Oh, when I met you
We had quite the year
You showed me love so pure, so strong
Then left me in bed, so alone
You're a stone-cold bitch in the morning
Aren't you?
Aren't you, Mandy?

Sweet, sweet, sweet
Sweet, sweet Mary Jane
And codeine can kill any pain
