

Need Me

RAYE

Impatience, consuming me enchanted by a fantasy of what we should have been
But we are just not meant to be
Somehow in my seconds I find you holding me purely, accidentally
Or maybe even in my dreams

I drank from your cup
It's like you put something in that
Now I can never seem to get enough
There was no need for you to do that

Oh baby, baby, baby, baby, baby
I'll be there as soon as you need me, need me, need me, need me
Oh baby, baby, baby, baby, baby
I'll be there as soon as you need me, need me, need me, need me
Oh

An illusion misguiding me, I'm guarded by reality
That's what we could've been
Something that you can physically can see
And it breaks my heart when the morning comes to disrupt my dreams
You're messing with me mentally

I drank from your cup
It's like you put something in that
Now I can never seem to get enough
There was no need for you to do that

Oh baby, baby, baby, baby, baby
I'll be there as soon as you need me, need me, need me, need me
Oh baby, baby, baby, baby, baby
I'll be there as soon as you need me, need me, need me, need me
Oh

Can't you see, I'm lost for words
I'm swimming out in space right now
I'm trying to pretend like this doesn't hurt
I need you to come and pull me down

I drank from your cup
It's like you put something in that
Now I can never seem to get enough
There was no need for you to do that

Oh baby, baby, baby, baby, baby
I'll be there as soon as you need me, need me, need me, need me
Oh baby, baby, baby, baby, baby
I'll be there as soon as you need me, need me, need me, need me
Oh baby, baby, baby, baby, baby
I'll be there as soon as you need me, need me, need me, need me
Oh baby, baby, baby, baby, baby
I'll be there as soon as you need me, need me, need me, need me
