RAYE

I only see you and I
In a crowded room you're my decision
Oh we been blurring the lines
In a crowded room I guess I kissed him, kissed him

Oh now baby hold on, hold on
Pushed you back for so long
And I'm all out of good excuses now baby
Alright alright
I can't wait one more night
I give up, I give in, I can't take it

Won't you please
Pour your loving over me
All your loving over me
Like a waterfall baby

Won't you please
Pour your loving over me
All your loving over me

I need you to
Let your water fall
Oh now baby
Let me feel it all

This may be a mistake
But I want your tattoos on my shoulders
If you was bourbon and pain
I'd raise you to the sky and toast this, hopeless

Oh now baby hold on, hold on
Pushed you back for so long
And I'm all out of good excuses now baby
Alright alright
I can't wait one more night
I give up, I give in, I can't take it

Won't you please
Pour your loving over me
All your loving over me
Like a waterfall baby

Won't you please
Pour your loving over me
All your loving over me

I need you to
Let your water fall
Oh now baby
Let me feel it all

Give me something to live for
Give me something to love
Give me someone to hold on to
I'll put nothing above

Give me something to feel
Give me something to hold on to Give me something that's real

Never had a lover like you, no
It's the kind of loving I do want
Settled so I'm settling
Love him and I'm telling him
Got a good girl in her element, yeah
Never had a lover like you, no
It's the kind of loving I do want
Settled so I'm settling
Love him and I'm telling him

Won't you please
Pour your loving over me

Won't you please
Pour your loving over me

I need you to
Oh now baby
Let me feel it all

Won't you let your
Won't you let your
Waterfall
Waterfall
