

Good Friend

Rayland Baxter

All I can say to the one that I love
I am sorry for leavin so soon
But if you trust in the moon
And the stars above
I will be there again I am sure

As for now I'm down on my luck
And there's no one to bring me around
So all I want you to be is a good friend to me
For tomorrow I'll be gone again

Did I mention to you that I love your face
It reminds me of a life that I missed
And the touch of your skin how it takes me away
From the feelin of feelin like this

And when the crowds have shuffled away
And the nights are lonely and strong
All I want you to be is a good friend to me
For tomorrow I'll be gone again

And when I walk by your side I'm a better man
And I notice that you're better too
And if the winds cover me down under the sands
So fast, I will return to you

And if the days are tired & long
And the sun is beatin' me down
All I want you to be is a good friend to me
For tomorrow I'll be gone again

And when the night takes a turn
And you're layin me down
On your bed, made for a queen
Remember my one and only request
This is all that I'll ever need
Cuz sometimes I feel like a fool
For doing these things that I do
So all I want you to be is a good friend to me
For tomorrow I'll be gone again
All I want you to be is a good friend to me
For tomorrow I'll be gone again
