

My Argentina

Rayland Baxter

I could stare at you all day
And sing into your beautiful face
When I open up my eyes
All I wanna see are your eyes

In abandon forever
I feel it kinda more than I wanted to
But I want it and you got it
I feel it even more when I look at you
Yeah, I feel it even more when I look at you

Well, it's too late to cry on your shoulder
It's too late to love you like that
Tell me why should I love you forever
When you won't even love me back

I could stare at you all day
And sing into your beautiful face
When I open up my mind
All I want is you there inside

So I want it and you got it
I feel it kinda more than I wanted to
In abandon forever
I feel it kinda more when I look at you
Yeah, I feel it kinda more than I wanted to

Well, it's too late to cry on your shoulder
It's too late to love you like that
Why would I love you forever, uh
When you won't even love me back?
When you won't even love, love me back

But I could stare at you all day
And sing into your beautiful face
I could open up my eyes
All I wannna see are your eyes

So I want it and you got it
I feel it kinda more than I wanted to
In abandon forever
I feel it kinda more when I look at you
Yeah, I feel it even more when I look at you
