

Violence

Rayland Baxter

Bye love
Is all I could say
Your eyes love
Give you away
We used to wave our days
And be open
To simple changes

Now all of our pain is
Out there where the rain is rainin'

Violence
In your every word
Followed by silence
No angel on your shoulder
To cool you down that night
So goodbye baby

There she goes walking away

Understand understand
Miss understanding
Where you stand
Where we are
Golden landing
Angel wings
Angel girl
Wrong girl
Wrong girl
Right world
Wrong world
All you need to know

My world
Not yours
It's my world
