

We

Rayland Baxter

Baby, you can be my...
Baby, you can be my...
Baby, you can be my...
Baby, you can be my...
Baby, baby

You ain't in the mood to argue, so baby don't you worry,
This some shit to get along to, some shit I right my wrongs to I've tried to call you, have us a discussion
But we never talk no more, we always way too busy fuckin'
I'll think of something to say, I always do
I'm in love with the way that you say my name, every time it so und brand new

And you, always wonderin' what we'll be
I say we sound better than you or me

Baby, you can be my...
Baby, you can be my...
And maybe I can be your...
Maybe you can be my...

And time will tell if I'm alive and well, 'cause when I'm by my self
I find that I keep flying high, sometimes I must remind myself
That change is more than pennies laying on the floor inside a w ell
You cross my mind, do not apologize for being fine as hell
I'm spinning here inside your spell, my mind has gone to wander
I missed a day, I stay up late admiring your posture

And you, always wonderin' what we'll be
I say we sound better than you or me

Baby, you can be my...
Baby, you can be my...
And maybe I can be your...
Baby you can be my...

There's no more you or me, we are we, yes we are
And I can see, I can see, so much better
And carefully, precious things fall apart
Just let 'em be, let 'em be, forever
Oh, loving me, in spite of me, bless your heart
I can breathe, I can breathe so much better
I won't let anything tear us apart
We are we, we are we, forever