

Wait For It

Rayven Justice

It's so hard to find, it was easy with you though I should've stopped with the chasing, should've stopped treating you basic
Because I tried to deny it, on the inside, I tried to fight it
And now you gone and I'm stuck all alone
What more could I have done to prevent you from all the tears that yo u feared of?
What more could I have said? I let my best friend slip away

Supposed to be you in my 2 seater
But I fronted like I didn't need ya
Supposed to be you I'm beside each night
But I acted like I never had the time
You deserve better, I could do better
But I can't expect you to wait
And now that I'm ready and I'm willing
Guess I'm a little too late, guess I'm a little too late
Little too late, guess I'm a little too late
Little too late

Thought that I'd never fall in love and find somebody
And baby, I want to pretend like I don't need nobody But that's a lie girl and you know it, just because I don't show it d on't mean it ain't true
Cause I just want you yeah, tell me what do I do
What more could I have done to prevent you from all the tears that yo u feared of?
What more could I have said? I let my best friend get away

Supposed to be you in my 2 seater
But I fronted like I didn't need ya
Supposed to be you I'm beside each night
But I acted like I never had the time
You deserve better, I could do better
But I can't expect you to wait
And now that I'm ready and I'm willing
Guess I'm a little too late, guess I'm a little too late
Little too late, guess I'm a little too late
Little too late

Baby, supposed to be you in my 2 seater
But I fronted like I didn't need ya
Supposed to be you I'm beside each night
But I acted like I never had the time
You deserve better, I could do better
But I can't expect you to wait
And now that I'm ready and I'm willing
Guess I'm a little too late, guess I'm a little too late
Little too late, guess I'm a little too late
Little too late
