

Why?

Razed in Black

Love injection blank reflection
I've live my life in misery
False intentions pain addiction 10 years wasted out on me still waiting Frustrating for my infliction to receive Still fading Still crumbling
Deterioration will never cease

Why? Why? Must I go on living
Why? Why? Must I endure the pain I'm in Free will to do what I want

I don't remember wanting this Pain pills I take what I want who care's I no longer believe Still crying Denying
This mutha fucka's controlling
Still trying Still searching
For meaning, fucking impossible to find
