

Keep your map, ah, the right way up
Oh, I got you a space on the back of the bus
Oh, one of those days, we must have felt like giving
Oh, one of those days we must have felt like living

But you're faster than love, faster than love
I'm just trying to cover, but I can't keep up

Oh, the cyclops got me, baby, in his trap
I'm an old, old story in a balancing act
Oh, you be the weight and I'll be the touch
Man, oh man, oh man, the fates they got to pick on us

And if you're running
And if you're running

Make sure you're faster than love
Oh, yeah, faster than love, faster than love
I'm faster than love, faster than love
Oh, I'm trying to cover, but I can't keep up

There's sunlight, baby, on an empty sea
Ooh, you shut your eyes tight when you're looking at me
I touch you, baby, I don't wait on more
And if it's closer than real, then what are leaving for?

And if you're running
And if you're running

Oh, stay faster than love, faster than love, ooh, ooh
Faster than love, faster than love
Oh, faster than love, faster than love
Oh, oh-oh-oh-oh-oh-oh
Like a train losing traction
Or a limbic reaction
Oh, oh-oh-oh-oh-oh-oh
Oh, are you faster than love, faster than love?
Oh, oh-oh-oh-oh-oh-oh
Like a TNT boom
A collapsing room
Oh, oh-oh-oh-oh-oh-oh
Are you faster than love?
