

Dirty Luck

Razorlight

Well, I thought I saw your airplane
But it was just another star
I guess stars are more romantic
But they don't change where we are, are

You don't have to say you love me
No, no, no
I'm just hoping that you care
I just realised the love you gave me hit so heavy
That it, it just sucks when you're not there

While I'm driving to the record company
I'm the guy who sells them drugs
And I wonder if it matters if, once upon a time, things were better
But I, I don't think that it does

You don't have to say you love me
No, no, no
I'm just hoping that you care
I just realised the love you gave me hit so heavy
That it, it just sucks when you're not there

You don't have to say you get me
No, no, no
I'm just hoping that you'll dance
I just realised the way you looked hooked me so heavenly
That I, I just had to take that chance

You don't have to say you love me
I'm just hoping that you care
You don't have to say you get me
It really sucks when you're not-
That it, it just sucks when you're not there
That it, it just sucks when you're not there

Meanwhile, back on planet Nowhere
I'm the guy who just says yes to the boss
I do nothing consequential
I've got no dirty luck, I've always lost

You don't have to say you love me
No, no, no
I'm just hoping that you care
I just realised the love you gave me hit so heavy
That it, it just sucks when you're not there

You don't have to say you get me
No, no, no
I'm just hoping that you'll dance
I just realised the way you looked hooked me so heavenly
That I, I just had to take that chance
I just had to take that chance

I just had to take that-
I just had to take that chance
I just had to take that-
I just had to take that chance

I just had to take that-
I just had to take that chance
I just had to take that-
I just had to take that chance
I just had to take that-
