

We heard they caught you talking
F.O.B.F. to your core
But I ain't no Jolly Rancher
Oh my God
I know what I'm here for

But I never heard such dirty words
It must have been some real hard arse scene
For you to be so cruel to me

All we ever wanted was our own place
To opt out in
Uh
Uh, uh

No idle scream of pleasure
No black hearts forevermore
Oh my God
I ain't your sweet sodbuster
I know what you use me for

But I never heard such dirty words
It must have been some real hard arse scene
For you to be so cold to me

But all we ever wanted was our own
All we ever wanted was our
All we ever wanted was our own place
All we ever wanted was a real space
To opt out in
Now gimme some

I never heard such dirty words
It must have been some real hard arse scene
For you to be so cruel to me

But all we ever wanted
I mean all we ever wanted
Yeah, all we ever wanted
All we ever wanted
All we ever wanted was our own space
All we ever wanted was a real place
All we ever wanted was our own space
All we ever wanted was a real place
