

Girl You're Going To Get It All

Rea Garvey

She's a small big-city girl. Seventeen
Watching the world through a telephone screen
She's got no shadow
Afraid she's gonna lose herself

Tied to the tracks of a "9-to-5"
Knocking on the doors as they close the blinds
Counting down the days
Waiting for the words
You're good enough

You can let it go
You can give up
You go can get it

The bigger that you dream
The harder that you fall
But you're not broken
Girl, you're gonna get it
Girl, you're gonna get it all

So, get up off your knees
Show 'em who you are
Yeah. You're golden
Girl, you're gonna get it
Girl, you're gonna get it all

In a world unwoke
You gotta fight for yourself
Like it's 1848. Will we ever learn?
Good times make the weak
Hard times make warriors
You take the lead
Truth finds the followers

You can let it go
You can give up
Or you go can get it

The bigger that you dream
The harder that you fall
But you're not broken
Girl, you're gonna get it all
Girl, you're gonna get it all

So, get up off your knees
Show 'em who you are
Yeah. You're golden
Girl, you're gonna get it all
Girl, you're gonna get it all

The bigger you dream
The harder you fall
Get up off your knees
Show them who you are

The bigger you dream

The bigger that you dream

So, get up off your knees
Show 'em who you are
