

Never Giving Up

Rea Garvey

I'm not the strongest but I'm still a fighter
No I never have enough, yeah I like to aim high
Drinking from an empty cup
Drank from the river as a source of fiber
I was living in a rut
When [?]

Hey, I've been so low there's no more looking down
Hey, but I'm strong enough to love your laughter
Hey, the only answers that I've ever found
Hey, never giving up, never ever ever giving up

Never giving up
Never ever ever giving up
I'm never giving up
Never ever ever giving up

I'm a soldier of the light
I'll be there for your darkest hour
I'll be ready for the fight
I'm on the front line
[?] 'cause she might
Never leave your side, never leave you behind
We are lovers of a life
'Cause we're one of a kind

Hey, I've been so low there's no more looking down
Hey, but I'm strong enough to love your laughter
Hey, the only answers that I've ever found
Hey, never giving up, never ever ever giving up
Never giving up, never ever ever giving up
I'm never giving up, never ever ever giving up

Losing girl you know [?]
Yeah she loves you when you wanna fight
Never giving up, never ever ever giving up
If you pray for it all
Know the lows come before the highs
Fuck it, I'm never giving up

Hey, I've been so low there's no more looking down
Hey, but I'm strong enough to love your laughter
Hey, the only answers that I've ever found
Hey, never giving up, never ever ever giving up
Never giving up, never ever ever giving up
I'm never giving up, never ever ever giving up
