

Pretty

Rea Garvey

In and out like a violin
Connecting lives on your ball of string
One day your smile is not another day's grin
Whole lotta rouge just to colour it in

She sees the flaws in her reflection
Digging her claws into perfection
Borderline insanity, borderline insanity

Pretty don't laugh, no, and pretty don't cry
Pretty want out 'cause she's camera shy
Pretty fall down when pretty get high
Pretty got caught up living a lie

She cries at the words from the hateful few
They know how to hurt without knowing the truth
You'd think you'd close, they don't care about you
Cashing in on the million views

She sees the flaws in her reflection
Digging her claws into perfection
Borderline insanity, borderline insanity

Pretty don't laugh, no, and pretty don't cry
Pretty want out 'cause she's camera shy
Pretty fall down when pretty get high
Pretty got caught up living a lie

Pretty don't laugh, no, and pretty don't cry
Pretty want out 'cause she's camera shy
Pretty fall down when pretty get high
Pretty got caught up living a lie

Living a lie
She's living a lie

Pretty don't laugh, no, and pretty don't cry
Pretty want out 'cause she's camera shy
Pretty fall down when pretty get high
And pretty got caught up living a lie

Living a lie
She's living a lie
Pretty don't cry
