

Serenade

Read Southall Band

How's everybody doing in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma this evening?
Alright, alright, alright. So here's the single off our latest album "Borrowed Time," it's called "Serenade."

Well I'm a-headin' west out [?] road
Livin' this life has been a heavy load
Can't turn around and don't wanna go back home
There's a half a thirty pack's in my back seat
Passed out buddy's in the front with me
Ain't much help but he keeps me from feelin' so lonely

Makin' miles around this washed up town
Got my radio up and the dash dimmed down
My mind's racin' like these 8 lug wheels
Tonight I'm gonna serenade my damn steerin' wheel

Well this workin' week sure wore me out
Rather be in motion instead of sittin' down
Starin' at the walls and writin' down sad songs
They say love's a drug, I guess got hooked
There's no bookin' rehab or I'd be booked
I need somethin' to help with these withdrawals

Makin' miles around this washed up town
Got my radio up and the dash dimmed down
My mind's racin' like these 8 lug wheels
Tonight I'm gonna serenade my damn steerin' wheel

Makin' miles around this washed up town
Got my radio up and the dash dimmed down
My mind's racin' like these 8 lug wheels
Tonight I'm gonna serenade my damn steerin' wheel
