

Why

Ready For The World

Why are we still here
Why do we still hate one another
Instead of talk why do we kill
Why haven't we learned we need each other

As I sit and contemplate the situation
Equality seems so easy for every person
But they take our colors and divide us
And take advantage of

Why why
(Yea)
Why why
(I'm just asking why)
Why why
(Why so much hate)
Why why
(Why can't we all be great)

Why are children locked in those cages
Why can't we understand the protestors
Instead of locking arms why would we rather fight
But why can't I love you why can't you live me why can't we do what's right

As I sit and contemplate the situation
Equality seems so easy for every person
But they take our colors and divide us
And take advantage of

Why why
(Oh somebody somebody tell me why)
Why why
(I gotta know)
Why why
(Why)
Why why
(Somebody tell me)

Love for everyone

Why why
(Somebody tell me why)
Why why
(Why why)
Why why
(When we'll be really together)
Why why
(Oh somebody tell me why)
