What, bro
Let me go another one, man
You know what, bro?
Dude, I got some shit for this one, this one's crazy too
Focus your mind, bro
Keep tryna perfect these little things
And then one day they're gonna have to switch up

This is the reminder, this is the reminder
This is the reminder, this is the reminder
This is the reminder, this is the reminder
This is the reminder

You're no more Mr. Nice Guy (No more Mr. Fly Guy)
And she knows that I'm all the way
And she know it's the only way I get paid
'Cause I am faded, 'cause I am jaded
Let me take a breath (Woah, oh, oh)
And I can't get her name right up out my head (No, no)
Every single day of the week, yeah
Yeah, Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday, Saturday, Sunday
Tell me, are you okay?
Tell me, do you need me?
And you keepin' me?
And you see me, girl, can you come save me?

So baby, just
Wear this
You know that your love
Let me find your love tonight
And you know that I love you

This is the reminder, this is the reminder (This is the remind')
This is the reminder, this is the reminder (This is the reminder)
This is the reminder, this is the reminder (This is the remind')
This is the reminder
This is the reminder, this is the reminder (This is the remind')
This is the reminder, this is the reminder (This is the remind')
This is the reminder, this is the reminder (This is the remind')
This is the reminder

Let me take a breath
And I can't get her name right up out my head
And I heard I woke, but not yet what you said
'Cause I am faded, 'cause I am jaded
