

Let Me Go

RealestK

Conversations we ain't having
And I'm driving through this traffic to your heart
All my love now this a habit
And my emotions, they just stay the same, babe
I'll never fade away from your heart

And all of this love I got for you, my darling
You got my heart on locks, number one spot, bae

And baby, don't you hold me close to let me go, hold me close to
let me go
Hold me close to let me go
Don't hold me close to let me go, hold me close to let me go
Hold me close to let me go tonight

Back and forth, baby, we go back and forth
When you leave up out that door, you come straight back for more
I know you toxic, but you love me for it
I know if I said many things, you'd forgive me for it

I know you tried, I know I lied, I know you left for a reason
But baby, I know I was the one that was tweaking
I know I fucked that girl in the hotel, I know I cheated
You called my phone, it went to tones 'cause I was busy fucking
You said you loved me, but baby, I just ended discussions

And baby, don't you hold me close to let me go, hold me close to
let me go
Hold me close to let me go
Don't hold me close to let me go, hold me close to let me go
Hold me close to let me go tonight

Let me go
