

Open your eyes
Open your eyes and see
Tellin' me lies
But you cannot lie to me

Tell me
Tell me, what you waitin' for?
I hopin' it close all the doors
On you, baby
Now you
Tellin' me that you love somebody else
Callin' your name and I'm reachin' for help
Did me so wrong, now you goin' to hell
And by yourself

Trust issues, I don't get it
You tell me the things, I get it
'Cause I will never forget it
Girl, you know I regret this
And the things you that don't tell me, you tell your friends
I will not sit down and make our amends
I know that you think that you comprehend
And you leavin', leavin' me behind

Tell me
How can I trust you if you don't Ever, yeah, give me the reasons?
Your feelings are changin' like seasons
And I can't
Love nobody how I ever did (Did)
Can't believe that I ever did (Did)
All of the things your world cannot fix
And you cannot fix this, no

Callin' your phone, you leave me on decline
I told you don't do this a million times
'Cause now you go ahead and leave me behind
Leave me behind, leave me behind (Leave me behind)
Oh, oh-oh (Leave me behind)
Leave me behind (Leave me behind)
Leave me behind (Woah-woah)
Oh, leave me, you leave me behind
Woah, oh-oh
