Think that it's really important
Better watch your mouth out of boredom
Me and him are not the same, girl
Pushing yourself back away from me
Security makin' a way for me
Baby, your love is a waste to me
Baby, your heart never changed for me
Baby, you adding the pain to me
You know I'm the one that been through it
You know I'm the one that showed up
Pop one, now I blow up
Pop two, that's a blowout

And shit don't feel the same
Think that all the molly hittin' up my brain
And all I gotta say
Baby, what's with all the drugs that you be taking?

All the drugs that you be taking
All the drugs that you be (Baby, what's with?)
All the drugs that you be taking (You be taking all the drugs)
All the drugs that you be (Baby, what's with?)
All the drugs that you be taking
All the drugs that you be (Baby, what's with?)
All the drugs that you be taking (Yeah, yeah)

Oh, I knew you would lie to me someday
Got me here crying on a Sunday
Fuck that, I'm about to hit it my way
Fuck that, my check, yeah, my pay
Shit isn't getting so deep for me
We don't even gotta speak about it
Love it when I'm getting deeper in you
Love it when you 'bout to scream about it
