

Stranger

RealestK

Closing all the lights, my feelings die
I saw you tonight, now I'm questioning why Pulled up to your crib how you wanted
Give you all of my truths, I'm being honest
I was never lying

You said you were in love
And you said we will be
And now we strangers now
You said that you want every single part of me
Now you're walking out
Now you're a stranger, stranger, stranger, a stranger, stranger
to me
Stranger to me and I just want to see Where'd you go from me baby

Baby he gon treat you worse shawty
And he gon hit you where it fucking hurts shawty
He gon leave his handprints right on your body
So baby how can you leave me for him

You said you were in love
now you're walking out
Now you're a stranger, stranger, stranger, a stranger, stranger
to me

Now you're a stranger
Oh baby now you're a stranger
Baby now you're a stranger
Stranger, stranger to me
