REASON

I was in this space of trying to think of some dope-ass conceptual ways, you know, how The deep rappers do to try to get off where I'm feeling and what not I just figured I'd come just chop it with the people, you feel me?
So a lot of shit coming up Niggas that really follow me, they know I got a passion for the up-and-coming artists, shit, I'm going to be doing some shit for or some up-and-coming artists trying to help niggas get from gr ound zero to at least where I'm at So that's dope
As far as my mental and how I handled all that shit, I'm gonna get to that shit on the album. I'm not gonna touch on that at a ll right now
Shout out my nigga, Kody Mac I'mma spin the block with him right after this shit, so I'm exc ited about that I'm also trying to get you out an album this year, so a nigga j ust got to close a couple situations. It just all depends on th e timeline
So it'll either be album, then the shit with Kody Mac, or Kody Mac, then the official album
I'm not too sure yet, but that's the plan right now And shit, if you see me in the streets and shit and you want to chop it, let's just chop it I had a nigga tell me the other day that he didn't want to disr upt my day with a picture, so that shit, this shit ain't real l ife What's real is the love, the support, and I fuck with y'all, so let's chop it
