

Not About You

REASON

Yeah

Got that 90's feelin' to it and shit

Ba boom, ba boom

So many arguments that we hope to settle
Over and over and over, seem like a broken record
I took my attention off of the growth of it
And learned quickly how far not being focused get you
Crazy enough, you was my favorite and stuff
Went off to thinkin' I'm crazy for thinkin' maybe it's love
But it's a thin line between that and being crazy and lust
So what's the thin line between hittin' missionary and fuckin'?
Oh shit, so many arguments that we hope to settle
Sex is a temporary fix if the stroke is special
I got you screamin' "Oh God" yet we don't know the reverend
I plant a seed in your belly but we can't grow together
Hopin' that that never happens
And I'm hopin' we can find the love I know we had
'Cause lately, it's been fatal tryna enable attractions
And I'm dealin' with feelings that had often had me mad
Madly in love with you

Meant somethin' some people are
Truth is, it was never you
That's why we had to try so hard
Hearts broken up from the love we knew
This song, this song, this song, still not about you, you, you
Yeah, you, you, you
Yeah, this song is still not about you (1, 2, 1, 2, 1, 2)
Broken up from the love we knew (Look)
But this song, this song, this song

Look, so many times I said shit I regretted later
But anger can make the tongue sporadic
I'm dyin', lustin' for passion, I need that shit like a addict
I'm paintin' a perfect picture, I'm hopin' for perfect captions
We risen like flowers but not a rose cut
And since we grouped, that infidelity rose up
I do it all to make you feel like you chose up
And I do anything for you but get these hoes up
Crazy right? That's all you ask me to do
Feel like I'm not the old me, you like "What happened to you?"
'Cause shit ain't been the same since the passion is through
They say "Get a grip on reality" I'm grabbin' for you
I need answers, I'm searchin' for mild proof
Feelings switchin' up as much as your styles do
Crazy thing is I been ramblin' this whole time
But somehow you gon' feel like this song was about you
'Cause we been through it all

Meant somethin' some people are
Truth is, it was never you (Never you)
That's why we had to try so hard
Hearts broken up from the love we knew
This song, this song, this song, still not about you, you, you
Yeah, you, you, you (1, 2, 1, 2, 1, 2)
This song is still not about you

Broken up from the love we knew
But this song, this song, this song
