

You Don't Have To Leave

Rebecca Ferguson

Just because I'm pushing doesn't mean I don't understand
You've gotta feel free, gotta feel like you're the man
If [?] and seen the world
Am I holding your share of girls
Don't you let this one slip through your hands

Don't you wanna know what it means to be a family
To rewrite the wrongs, I thought you have better for me
When you speed up so fast in your car and my heart tastes free
You don't have to leave, you don't have to leave

Wednesday night I saw you, trying your best
Tryna look like you didn't care, like you're not depressed
Well excuse me, mister, I don't play safe
Gave her the power and now you're the slave
You had a crack of freedom and gave it away

Don't you wanna know what it means to be a family
To rewrite the wrongs, I thought you have better for me
When you speed up so fast in your car and my heart tastes free
You don't have to leave, you don't have to leave

Katie, Becky
Chloe, Abby
Rachel, Jade
I'm sorry

Katie, Becky
Chloe, Abby
Rachel, Jade
I'm sorry

I'm sorry
I'm sorry for us all

Don't you wanna know what it means to be a family
To rewrite the wrongs, I thought you have better for me
When you speed up so fast in your car and my heart tastes free
You don't have to leave, you don't have to leave
