Like a band without a drummer That's me without you Like a year without a summer That's me without you Like a king without a country Like a room without a view Like an empty gun Like a fatherless son That's me without you Like a ship without a rudder That's me without you Like a child without it's mother That's me without you Like a story with no ending Like a foot without a shoe Like a wasted feast Like a faithless priest That's me without you

Me without you
A pitiful sight
Me without you
It ain't never gonna feel right

Like a war without an enemy
That's me without you
A disease without a remedy
That's me without you
Like a crime without a victim
Like a sleuth without a clue
Like an empty gun
Like a fatherless son
That's me without you

Without you...
