

on a monday...

lover, lover
don't you know
we should be together

never, never learnt to fall
so now i'm losing my soul

maybe, maybe
I'm insane
but it feels so humane

mirror, mirror
tell me why
I have lost my appetite

wah-wah-wah-wah
walking at the supermarket lalalala feel
with my friends in front of me lolololo live
in the modern houses
lalalala here
on the dancefloor

on a friday...

darling, darling
time to go
cause everything just went wrong

I just have to cry it out cause I am losing my heart

send me, send me
back to school
they know how to teach a fool rainbow warriors
be so kind
and take me to the mountains working, working these hard days waiting, waiting for answers my heart, my heart is fearless before the dawn I am waving, waving the white flag giving, giving my hope back please turn off you sweet eyes cause i'm about to lose my mind
