

Melancholia

Rebeka

Will I ever come back
From my sweet melancholia
Come back

I'm here
With my sweet melancholia
All I know is that I'm full of need
I'm safe
With my sweet melancholy
Melancholia
Were you born deep in the green ocean

Will I ever come back
Come back
From my sweet melancholia

I'm here
My face is covered with sadness
I have drunk up every drop of depths
I'm real
With my sweet solid friend
Melancholy
Will you take me deep in the ocean
