

Nothing to Give

Rebeka

Far far away
Far away from my home
I have a secret
No one will ever know it
I have it here
I have my secret
No one will ever know it

Far far away
From my real home
I've got a mystery
No one will ever know it

My mystery is in my hands
And you will never
You will never know that
I will one day
One day explode
In the bright light
In a sudden stroke

I have my secret
No one will ever know it
I have my hidden roads
No one will ever follow me
I have nothing to give
I cannot save you
I have nothing to give

You cannot follow me
I'm not like the one
Who leads the battle
I am the unseen wind
Blowing off my trap

And the bird is gone
Wait for me
Words are gone
Don't trust my body 'cause
It will burst and explode

In a sudden explosion
In a lightning's motion
I will fly from the buildings
I will fly from the roof
No one will ever know it
