

Blood Against Blood

Rebellion

1)

Cornwall dead
Regan widowed
At Edmund she smiles
And her sister marks it well

2)

Goneril vowed
To her own husband
At Edmund she smiles
To his lying promises she fell

Ref.:

Blood arises against blood and who can tell
The fiend is shielded by a female face so well
As the sisters seek to take each other down
To gain the lacking jewel, the prince to hail their crown

3)

Albany's distaste
Goneril's doings
The fiend recognised
As the doings step by step unfold

Ref.:

Blood arises against blood and who can tell
The fiend is shielded by a female face so well
As the sisters seek to take each other down
To gain the lacking jewel, the prince to hail their crown

NARRATOR:

And on the day of the battle Edmund lead the combined forces against the French.
Fighting like mad he inspired his soldiers and smashed his enemies into the dust to bleed and die.

The bastard son of Gloucester, he won the day and was hailed a hero.
