

Simply Captivating

Rebelution

Hey, watch your step
Come on up
Listen in
It's the breeze at the right time
Night comes the wind and
I can't explain it
I'm less creative
It's a sign things are changing
Simply captivating
So
Patience, patience
Watch me as I switch between the moods
And it's blatant
Multiplying emotions times ten
As I'm waiting
Asking the question is this mine for the taking
My fingertips keep grazing on the side
To watch the time go by
Though it's far from excitement
A toast to the night
Just watch the time go by
In amazement
Simply captivating
So
So, to life

I find it amazing how the wind is a song in itself
Well, it blows my mind
Twenty years being lost
And in search of a sound that satisfies
To watch the time go by
Though it's far from excitement
A toast to the night
Just watch the time go by
In amazement
Simply Captivating
So
So, to life
So, to life
So, to life
