

Don't Say Goodbye

Reckless Kelly

Well now where do you think your going?
When you're headed for the door
With your head hanging down staring at the floor
And even though I can't see 'em
I can still feel that latent look in your eye
Oh you don't have to say it cause I've heard it before
And anyway I don't think I can take it anymore
But baby it would break my heart if you said goodbye

So don't say goodbye
I'm not ready to let you go
You think we've run out of love
But I've got so much more
Say anything else that comes to your mind
Baby don't you say goodbye

Well now you don't feel like talking
Like there's nothing else to say
And anyhow I know your going to have it your way
You've got me where you want me
And I can feel it when your smiling that crooked little smile

Oh and I don't think its funny that you're treating me this way
And even though I know it'll get better someday
Baby it would break my heart if you said goodbye

(Chorus)

(Bridge)

Baby take a hold of my hand
I swear I can make a better man
Darling you know I'll lay it right on the line

(Chorus)

So don't say goodbye
I'm not ready to let you go
You think we've run out of love
But I've got so much more
Say anything else that comes to your mind
Baby don't you say goodbye
Oh baby it would break my heart if you said goodbye
