

Romantic Disaster

Reckless Kelly

Here comes another romantic disaster
Another true love slippin' away
Gone are the dreams of happy ever after
Savin' my forever for a rainy day

Watchin' you get ready for another last call
Your lipstick lookin' like a Saturday night
Hearts on the mirror like the writing on the wall
One drink away from lookin' for a fight

Here comes another romantic disaster
Another true love slippin' away
Gone are the dreams of happy ever after
Savin' my forever for a rainy day

You're drinkin' more now than when I first met ya
It makes me wonder what you're tryin' to forget
You're looin' worse than the shape that he left ya
You got me thinkin' I ain't seen nothin' yet

Standin' under streetlights holding your heels
You're tellin' me to walk away
The way it is ain't the way that it feels
I love ya baby but I don't know how to stay

Here comes another romantic disaster
Another true love slippin' away
Gone are the dreams of happy ever after
Savin' my forever for a rainy day
Savin' my forever for a rainy day
