

Born To Break Your Heart

Reckless Love

Hello, I am your destiny
I was born to break your heart
You knew it right from the start

Goodbye farewell to your innocence
I'm the point of no return
I'm the fire I will burn

Baby I was born to break your heart
Baby I will tear your heart apart
I'm your evil angel with smile of a reptile
I will avenge all the tears I've cried
I was born to break your heart

For you I'm down right dangerous
Deadly just like drugs
Baby I'm poisonous

So come on, come on and kiss the pain
(Kiss the pain oh yeah)
My lips will leave a stain
But baby you cannot stay away

Baby I was born to break your heart
Baby I will tear your heart apart
I'm your evil angel with smile of a reptile
I will avenge all the tears I've cried
I was born to break your heart

I will leave a scar
Cut you deep
I will make you bleed

Ooooooo baby can you sense that taste
It's the flavour of you fate
The bittersweet pill to take
B-baby b-baby now you can not be saved
