

Fonzi Scheme

Red Fang

You've got nothing to say when you're old and tired and grey are you fading away?
Buried alive in your age you've got no time to lose cuz you know you're failing soon and you're slaving away wearing the scars of your days when time does not have better answers the kids will kill the voice of right and every silence fuels their anger and holes will fill our eyes
