

It's time to hurry home
You know he can't be left alone
Dim the lights and try to find a cure

And we may never know
Why the systems overflow
Drowning all the storms inside his head

Why not try to fight at all?
Why not scale the skies?
Why would any fix be a fix?
Why do you feel?

Digging in again
Try to be an honest friend
Want to help but can't get too sucked in

Save yourself from him
Place the mask on nose and chin
Breathe in deep to steal the oxygen

Why not try to fight at all?
Why not scale the skies?
Why would any fix be a fix?
Why do you want to die?
