

You and Me

Red Foley

You and me together life's a pleasure
But without your love I'd want to flee
And I feel the same about you darling
We belong together you and me
We'll share loves' joy and life's sorrow
You belong to me I belong to you
When you hold my hand
The sun shines brighter
When you smile at me, I lose my blues
Don't ever let nothing come between us
Think how lonely life apart would be
Gossiping tongues can never change me darling
Your love means more than life to me
