

Let 'Em Cry

Red Hot Chili Peppers

Cry, cry, let 'em cry
We don't need no reason why
Ima touch you up with every lovin', rough emotion
Cry, cry, let 'em cry
Bleeding from my restless eye
Our laws are breaking and no physics can define us

Tell my wife and dog
I'll be home at 3 a.m.
To kiss you in the morning
Cry, cry, let 'em cry
Know what I have deep inside
It's time to break free from the mouse trap when it's stormin'

Up, up the lover, we got the mother
Touch up the neighbor, she don't mind
Up, up the fauna, we got Nirvana
All I know is I feel fine
Up, up another, we got the cover
Touch up the Raiders, they don't mind
Up, up the fauna, we got Madonna
All I know is I feel fine

Shine, shine, let 'em shine
Hit me with that lion's prize
Ten thousand heavens are about to shed their glory
Shine, shine, let 'em shine
Hit me with that Guggenheim
Ima tell you everything and how to build a story

Trust in love, my man
You can feel it rainin' down
So early when it's forming
Slide, slide, let it slide
My street is preoccupied
I'd like to kiss her face if I could only find her

Up, up, the lover, we got the mother
Touch up the neighbor, she don't mind
Up, up, the fauna, we got Nirvana
All I know is I feel fine
Up, up, another, we got the cover
Touch up the Raiders, they don't mind
Up, up, the fauna, we got Madonna
All I know is I feel fine

Cry, cry, let 'em cry
We don't need no reason why
Ima touch you up with every loving, rough emotion
Cry, cry, let 'em cry
Bleeding from my lefty eye
Our laws are breaking and no physics can define us

Up, up, the lover, we got the mother
Touch up the neighbor, she don't mind
Up, up, the fauna, we got Nirvana
All I know is I feel fine

Up, up, another, we got the cover
Touch up the Raiders, they don't mind
Up, up, the fauna, we got Madonna
All I know is I feel fine
