

BURN IN HELL

Red Leather

I'm alone on a train
I made my escape
But I know what's at stake
On judgment day
I was livin' off of dirt-cheap cocaine, on my way south to L.A.
Never slowed down, never slowed down
I used to sleep through the day, always had a Colt .38
Through the ghost towns, ridin' through the ghost town

Oh, me, myself, and I
We're outta time
To save ourselves
No angels cry
'Cause when we die
We'll burn in Hell

I was on the run from the law, had to get the fuck outta dodge
Left a kilo back in Reno
Railin' blow, hittin' licks when I stole all those chips
From casinos back in Reno

Oh, me, myself, and I
We're outta time
To save ourselves
No angels cry
'Cause when we die
We'll burn in Hell

(Lost my faith in God)
(Lost my faith in God)
(Lost my faith in God)
If we burn in Hell (Lost my faith in God)
If we burn in Hell

(Lost my faith in God)
Lost my faith in God
Lost my faith in God
Lost my faith in God
(Lost my faith in God)

Me, myself, and I ('Self and I)
We're outta time (Outta time)
To save ourselves
No angels cry (No angels cry)
'Cause when we die
We'll burn in Hell

(Lost my faith in God)
(Lost my faith in God)
(Lost my faith in God)
If we burn in Hell (Lost my faith in God)

(Lost my faith in God)
Oh (Lost my faith in God)
(Lost my faith in God)
If we burn in Hell
