

GHOST TOWN

Red Leather

Here I am, on a desert road
At my lowest low, haunted by your ghost
You left me at the altar, so high and dry
On that lonely night, tumbleweeds rollin' by Woah, baby, you were my everything

We built it up, and burned it down
We got nothing left, nothing left now
You said forever, but since, you've been gone
Baby, there's nothing left in this ghost town

(Ooh, ooh)

(Ooh, ooh)

Here I am, drinkin', thinkin' 'bout you leavin', but you're her e in spirits
Know you had your reasons, now it's wedding seasons, got me in my feelings

We built it up, and burned it down
You said forever, but since, you've been gone

(Ooh, ooh)

(Ooh, ooh)

(Ooh, ooh)

(Ooh, ooh)

You were my everything
