

MS. WHISKEY

Red Leather

Do you miss me like I miss whiskey?
'Cause I'm going through withdrawals, and I need you right now
Do you miss me like I miss whiskey?
I'd risk it all for one more kiss, do anything for one more sip
of Ms. Whiskey

I'm stuck in the biggest little city in the world
Been a minute since I lost my girl
She left me high, and dry
Should I love? The night she left, I crashed my truck Drank enough, I had to sober up
And now I sleep alone

All alone
I stopped drinkin', but I can't stop thinkin'

Do you miss me like I miss whiskey?
'Cause I'm going through withdrawals, and I need you right now
Do you miss me like I miss whiskey?
I'd risk it all for one more kiss, do anything for one more sip
of Ms. Whiskey

Let's go back to being lovers in the summer, livin' fast
I had nothing but my baby and a bottle of Jack Rock bottom on the rocks
It's too bad, all the good things, they never last
Now I'm singin' 'bout the past
And I'm singin' alone

All alone, -lone
I stopped drinkin', but I can't stop thinkin'
I been thinkin'

Do you miss me like I miss whiskey?
'Cause I'm going through withdrawals, and I need you right now
Do you miss me like I miss whiskey?
I'd risk it all for one more kiss, do anything for one more sip
of Ms. Whiskey
Oh, I could use a drink tonight 'cause there ain't nothin' like
Ms. Whiskey
Oh, Ms. Whiskey
I'd risk it all for one more kiss, do anything for one more sip
of Ms. Whiskey
