Red Line Chemistry

Difficult to figure out the pattern of an unexploring mind
When so graciously, I hold my hand to you
Shun away the ideal offering
When all I wish for you is something more in line with quality

Calling all to reason
Deal and understand

Fuck the institutions that are blinding you and driving your beliefs
You're so paranoid, you'll never trust a thing
Drive away the obvious relief
When all I wish for you is something more in line with quality

Calling all to reason
Deal and understand
With your back against the wall and you cannot realize
Exactly what I'm giving you, open up your eyes
Find a way to grow

Don't bite the lending hand (Don't bite the lending hand)
Explore your system further now (further now)
Bite the lending hand (the money)
You fuck the money (fuck the money)
Your family system's broken now

Calling all to reason
Deal and understand
With your back against the wall and you cannot realize (Calling all to reason)
Exactly what I'm giving you, open up your eyes
Find a way to grow!
