

Hand on Heart

Red Lorry Yellow Lorry

so tell me what I pay for the price of freedom no healthy survival in rooms unattached just trying to touch you, but never to hold you in this burning confusion, with hands made of clay you've got your hand on my heart

you've got your hand on my heart
you've got your hand on my heart
you've got your hand on my heart

in this prison of nowhere, you've played my emotions you've stretched my condition, my head is all fire with gates made of iron, like a lamb to the slaughter emotional torture is a game you enjoy

you've got your hand on my heart
you've got your hand on my heart
you've got your hand on my heart

the importance of nothing, your own bleak conclusion illusions an answer, but never the healer and crippled in silence, the stretch of a lifetime the power to hold me, your pleasure to gain it's a dicey situation I have found myself in

you've got your hand on my heart
you've got your hand on my heart
you've got your hand on my heart

on my heart
