Hard-away

Red Lorry Yellow Lorry

Don't ever let me see you hard-away Don't ever let me see you smile Don't ever steal yourself apart again Just let me touch you for a while You're hard-away, you're hard-away You're holding up inside You're hard away, you're hard away The tears you left behind Don't ever let me be the one to ache Don't ever let me by your side Don't ever let me be the one to take Don't ever let me be your eyes You're hard-away, you're hard-away You're holding up inside You're hard away, you're hard away The tears you left behind
