

She Said

Red Lorry Yellow Lorry

There's nothing wrong, I'm just holding on
To a brighter place, where the light is strong
There's a space inside, where I like to hide
There's a place I dream to forget the lies
There's a place alone where I like to go
Where the sky is clear and the sun is gold
She said, she said
Keep shinning on, my world is strong
I'm just holding out, I'm just hanging on
There's a space inside, where I like to hide
There's a place I dream to forget the lies
There's a place alone where I like to go
Where the sky is clear and the sun is gold
She said, she said
